

Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II

Apple Developer Academy a partnership with Apple

<http://developeracademy.unina.it>

STUDENT CALL FOR APPLICATIONS Apple Developer Academy

GIVEN the Law of August 2nd, 1990, n. 241 “Nuove norme in materia di procedimento amministrativo e di diritto di accesso ai documenti amministrativi” [“New regulations on administrative procedure and the right of access to administrative documents”] and subsequent amendments and / or additions;

GIVEN the applicable University Statute;

GIVEN the legislative decree of June 30th, 2003, n. 196 “Codice in materia di dati personali” [“Personal Data Protection Regulation”], as implemented with the Internal Regulations on the Implementation of Personal Data Protection Code used by the University, issued by D.R. n. 5073 dated 30.12.2005;

CONSIDERING the Scientific and Technological Cooperation Agreement signed between Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II and Apple, for the establishment of Developer Academy, for the training in the development of new applications and digital services, with the purpose - among others - to provide students admitted to the Developer Academy with the necessary skills to become “developer” of innovative apps, i.e. professionals who can design, implement and commercialize innovative services on Apple technological platforms;

CONSIDERING that, as provided for by the aforesaid Scientific and Technological Cooperation Agreement and the Exhibit A – Project Addendum 1, the students will be admitted to the Developer Academy after passing a specific selection;

GIVEN the Administration Board decree of 25th July 2016 and 27th October 2016 with which the administrative and accounting management has been entrusted to the Centro di Servizio di

Ateneo per il Coordinamento dei Progetti Speciali e l'Innovazione Organizzativa dell'Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II COINOR;

CONSIDERING also that, for the academic year 2019/2020 it is expected that a total number of 378 students will be admitted to the Developer Academy of which 20 seats are for those who have already attended a Foundation Program;

DECLARES

SECTION 1

(Announcement and number of seats)

This University announces a selection of 358 students to be admitted to the Apple Developer Academy.

The university reserves the right to increase the number of the students to a maximum of 378 in the event that the number of admitted students from the foundation announcement is lower than 20.

The selection refers to the academic year 2019/2020.

SECTION 2

(Requirements for participation)

In order to be eligible for the selection mentioned in section 1, applicants must be either EU or NON-EU citizens with a High school diploma issued by upper-secondary educational institutions or, if not obtained in Italy, an equivalent qualification. The diploma must have been earned within the scholastic year 2018/2019 or earlier.

Candidates get a provisional admission to the selection. The University might decide to exclude any candidate, at any stage of this selection procedure, if the requirements are not fully met.

The applicants must not have already attended the Apple Developer Academy in Naples in the academy years 2016/2017, 2017/2018 or 2018/2019.

SECTION 3

(Application for participation to the selection procedure)

The application form must be submitted exclusively on-line through the following website: www.developeracademy.unina.it. The on-line registration is available since the publication date of this announcement, and will close mandatorily (and under penalty of exclusion from the selection procedure) at 14:00hrs (GMT+1) of June 21st 2019.

Failure to comply with the regulations described in section A.2 of Annex A will prevent the admission to the selection and, in any case, result in an exclusion from the procedure.

Applicants with disabilities who require assistance to carry out the selection procedure should select "yes" in the "participants with special needs" box and must send by June 21st 2019 at 14.00hrs (GMT+1) any request via e-mail at the following address: developeracademy@unina.it. This is compulsory in order to receive any care and support service, as described in Annex a.2.

All communications concerning the selection will be given exclusively via on-line publication on the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at the University web site www.unina.it) and by publication on the web site www.developeracademy.unina.it

SECTION 4

(Evaluation Committee)

The Evaluation Committee will be appointed after the final deadline for submission of the participation applications. Its composition will be announced through a notice, published exclusively in the Official Noticeboard of the University (available at www.unina.it) and on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it

SECTION 5

(Selection procedure)

The admission exam will be in English and will consist of two phases:

- Assessment test
- Motivational interview

Those admitted to the interview will receive the communication of the admission as described in section 7.

The selection procedure refers to section A.3 of Annex A, which is part of this notice.

SECTION 6

(Admission tests: date and place of the evaluation test – execution modalities – candidate's obligations)

The evaluation test will be held in Naples, on the ground floor of the Federico II University - Biotechnology Sciences Campus in Via De Amicis 95, from July 8th 2019.

The schedule might be subject to changes. The up-to-date schedule will be published on the Apple Developer Academy web site (www.developeracademy.unina.it) and on the website of the University of Naples Federico II (www.unina.it).

The timetable of the tests will be announced exclusively via on-line publication on the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available on the web site www.unina.it) and on www.developeracademy.unina.it. This timetable will be published no later than 7 days before the beginning of the exams.

For this year's selection, the Academy is offering applicants to sit for on-line assessment also in one of the following remote examination sites: London, Munich, Paris. More details about this option can be found in section A.4 of Annex A.

The seats at remote sessions are limited. For this reason, access to remote sessions will be granted on a First-Come-First-Served basis. Overflow applicants will be invited (via e-mail) to take their exams in Naples.

Possible postponements of the dates will be announced on the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II and on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it and are authentic.

Any information related to the admission test will be made public only via the above mentioned mean.

The applicants who successfully applied for the admission test, according to the previous section 3, must arrive at the time and in the day indicated in the convocation notice at the university location assigned to them, with a valid identification document (ID card, passport). Applicants who, for any reason, are absent at the test in accordance with the timetable, will be deemed to have withdrawn.

During the test, applicants are not allowed to communicate between each other. Applicants, on pain of exclusion, cannot use or even hold mobile phones, smartphones, palmtops, electronic devices of any type and any suitable means for information storage or data transmission and also writing paper, handwritten or typed notes, books, publications, manuals, textbooks and reference materials, on pain of annulment of the test.

Applicants must remain in their seats until at least thirty (30) minutes before the expiration of the provided sixty (60) examination minutes. The applicant infringing the regulations of this section shall be excluded from the selection process.

SECTION 7

(Admission test: date and venue of the interview - implementation procedure)

The ranking list of the applicants admitted to the interview will be known exclusively by on-line publication on the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at www.unina.it) and by publication on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

Date and time of the interview will be given in the same way. The interview will take place on-line (via video conference), in accordance with the procedures mentioned in section A.3 of Annex A.

SECTION 8

(Publication of the ranking list)

The merit ranking list will be drawn up only on the basis of the scores obtained in the assessment tests and in the interview.

In the event of a tie, the younger candidate shall prevail. The final ranking list will be published in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available on www.unina.it) and on the web site www.developeracademy.unina.it.

Applicants who do not rank among the admitted 358 participants, can still apply for the Apple Developer Academy in accordance with the selection procedure for the subsequent academic years.

SECTION 9

(Scholarship and economic support funds)

Apple has made available a number of scholarships equal to 5% of the students admitted to the Developer Academy for the entire duration of the classes, in accordance with the final ranking.

All other students, based on the applicable European regulations (see European Social Fund regulations at <http://www.fse.regione.campania.it>), might receive from Regione Campania a contribution for the entire duration of the classes*.

SECTION 10

(Procedure of acceptance)

The candidates admitted have to formalize their attendance to Apple Developer Academy by signing an agreement by which they commit to the provisions of this selection notice.

Once the deadline for acceptance has expired, if there are any places left due to lack of acceptance or subsequent withdrawal, the ranking will be scrolled. Any scrolling and the relative terms for making acceptances will be made public exclusively via posting on the website of the University of Naples Federico II.

SECTION 11

(Access to documents, Information regarding personal data)

Applicants have access to documents concerning the competition procedure, in accordance with the current legislation. This right will be exercised in the manner prescribed by the University Regulations laying down the rules on administrative procedure and the right of access to documents, issued with the Chancellor Decree n. 2386/98 and subsequent amendments and additions. According to section 13 of the law n. 196/2003, please note that the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II is responsible for processing personal data of applicants, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of implementation of personal data protection code used by the University, issued by D.R. n. 5073 of 30th December 2005 and subsequent amendments. |

* The contribution from Regione Campania will be provided to the students subject to the availability of funds.

SECTION 12

(Publication of the procedural acts)

This notice of selection and all documents attached will be published exclusively by on-line posting in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at the web site www.unina.it) and by publication on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

The online publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II has the force of notification with all effects and no personal messages will be sent to interested parties. Therefore, it is recommended a constant consultation of the web links above.

SECTION 13

(Final Provisions)

The University reserves the right to exclude at any time the applicants participating in the procedure pursuant to this notice for failure to comply with its provisions or within the time specified or for default of the applicants' requirements. The exclusions are made with a Chancellor Decree. Exclusions will be notified exclusively by online publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at the site www.unina.it), as well as by publication of the exclusion decree on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

Please note that Annex A is part of this announcement. We strongly recommend to carefully read the aforementioned document.

This announcement has been written in Italian. The English version is a translation for information purposes only. In case of discrepancy, the Italian version shall prevail and be binding.

Naples, 14 maggio 2019

F.to Il Direttore del Coinor
Prof. Luciano Mayol