STUDENT CALL FOR APPLICATIONS Indonesia Academy Applicants

Document reference: AppleDeveloperAcademyIndonesiaCall_20_21

GIVEN the Law of August 2nd, 1990, n. 241 “Nuove norme in materia di procedimento amministrativo e di diritto di accesso ai documenti amministrativi” [“New regulations on administrative procedures and the right of access to administrative documents”] and subsequent amendments and/or additions;

GIVEN the applicable University Statute;

GIVEN the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data - hereinafter EU Regulation 2016/679 - relating to the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data, and the related National legislation of the Code regarding the protection of personal data, Legislative Decree N. 196/2003, as modified and integrated by Legislative Decree No. 101/2018;

CONSIDERING the Regulation of the University of Naples Federico II regarding the processing of personal data, issued with D.R. 2088/2019;

CONSIDERING the Scientific and Technological Cooperation Agreement signed between Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II and Apple, for the establishment of the Developer Academy, for the training in the development of new applications and digital services, with the purpose – among others – to provide students admitted to the Developer Academy with the necessary skills to become “developers” of innovative apps, i.e., professionals who can design, implement and commercialize innovative services on Apple technological platforms;

CONSIDERING that, as provided for by the aforesaid Scientific and Technological Cooperation Agreement and the Exhibit A – Project Addendum 1, the students will be admitted to the Developer Academy after passing a specific selection;

GIVEN the Administration Board decree of 25th July 2016 and 27th October 2016 with which the administrative and accounting management has been entrusted to the Centro di Servizio di Ateneo per il Coordinamento dei Progetti Speciali e l’Innovazione Organizzativa dell’Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II – COINOR;

CONSIDERING also that, for the academic year 2020/2021 it is expected that a total number of 378 students will be admitted to the Developer Academy, of which 50 seats are for those who have already attended a Foundation Program, and 5 seats are for those who have already passed the written exam to an Indonesian Apple Developer Academy;

DECLARES

SECTION 1

(Announcement and number of seats)

This University announces a selection of 5 students to be admitted at the Apple Developer Academy.

The selection refers to the academic year 2020/2021.

SECTION 2

(Requirements for participation)

In order to be eligible for the selection mentioned in section 1, applicants must have applied and passed the written entry exam at one of the Indonesian Apple Developer Academies in 2020.

Candidates get provisional admission to the selection. The University might decide to exclude any candidate, at any stage of this selection procedure, if the requirements are not fully met.

The applicants must not have already attended the Apple Developer Academy in Naples in the academic years 2016/2017, 2017/2018, 2018/2019, 2019/2020.

SECTION 3

(Application for participation in the selection procedure)

The application form must be submitted exclusively on-line through the following website: www.developeracademy.unina.it. The on-line registration is available from the publication date of this announcement, and will close mandatorily (and under penalty of exclusion from the selection procedure) at 2pm (GMT+2) of August 28th 2020. Any Indonesian Academy applicant who is not accepted can still apply to the Naples Academy through the standard application process.

Failure to comply with the regulations described in section A.2 of Annex A will prevent admission to the selection and, in any case, result in exclusion from the procedure.

All communications concerning the selection will be given exclusively via on-line publication on the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at the University website www.unina.it), as well as by publication on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it

(Evaluation Committee)

The Evaluation Committee will be appointed after the final deadline for submission of the participation applications. Its composition will be announced through a notice, published exclusively in the Official Noticeboard of the University (available at www.unina.it) and on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it

SECTION 5

(Selection procedure)

The admission ranking process will be conducted as an individual on-line video conference motivation interview.

SECTION 6

(Admission test: date and venue of the interview - implementation procedure)

The date and time of the interview will be known exclusively by on-line publication on the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at www.unina.it) and by publication on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

The interview will take place on-line (via video conference), in accordance with the procedures mentioned in section A.3 of Annex A.

The interview will take place before September 7th, 2020.

SECTION 7

(Publication of the ranking list)

The merit ranking list will be drawn up only on the basis of the scores obtained in the interview.

In the event of a tie, the younger candidate shall prevail. The final ranking list will be published in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at www.unina.it) and on the web site www.developeracademy.unina.it.

The final ranking will be published before September 10th, 2020.

Applicants who do not rank among the admitted 5 participants, can still apply for the Naples Apple Developer Academy in accordance with the default selection procedure described in point A.2 of the Annex.

The standard application process ends September 11st, so unsuccessful candidates will need to act promptly if they wish to re-apply through the standard application process.

The selection procedure refers only to academic year 2020-2021.

Acceptance to the Apple Developer Academy in Naples does not grant acceptance to any other Apple Developer Academy.

SECTION 8

(Scholarship and economic support funds)

There will be both monetary rewards and an attendance allowance for those who successfully complete the Academy experience. They will be delivered at least one month after the end of the project. They will also be subject to constraints that come directly from the European Commission policies (associated with the funds being leveraged through Regione Campania).

In order to be eligible for the economic support, the applicant must:

- hold a High school diploma issued by upper-secondary educational institutions or, if not obtained in Italy, an equivalent qualification. The diploma must have been obtained no later than scholastic year 2019/2020

- be unemployed (under the current regulation¹) and preserve the state of unemployment for the entire duration of the course.

The applicants commit themselves to providing to the Administration Office, when required, any documents needed in order to prove the requirements of the call.

If Apple would decide to award a financial support to the students, this support will be not compatible with the regional contribution.

SECTION 9

(Procedure of acceptance)

The candidates admitted have to formalize their attendance to Apple Developer Academy by signing an agreement with which the admitted person undertakes to comply with the provisions of this selection notice, included the documents required in order to get the economic support.

Once the deadline for acceptance has expired, if there are any places left due to lack of acceptance or subsequent withdrawal, the ranking will be scrolled. Any scrolling and the relative terms for making acceptances will be made known exclusively by the publication on the website of the University of Naples Federico II and on the Apple Developer Academy website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

SECTION 10

(Access to documents, Information regarding personal data)

Applicants have access to documents concerning the competition procedure, in accordance with the current legislation. This right will be exercised in the manner prescribed by the University Regulations laying down the rules on administrative procedure and the right of access to documents, issued with the Chancellor Decree n. 2386/98 and subsequent amendments and additions.

SECTION 11

(Privacy and information on personal data)

In accordance with the art. 13 of the EU Regulation 679/2016, the personal data collected will be processed for the purposes of the procedure for which they are released and will be used exclusively for this purpose and in any case within the Institutional activities of the University. The data controller is the University of Naples Federico II, in the persons of the Rector and the General Manager, in relation to their skills. Exclusively for problems concerning the non-compliant processing of personal data, it is possible to contact the Data Controller by sending an email to the following address: ateneo@pec.unina.it; or to the Data Protection Officer: rpd@unina.it; PEC: rpd@pec.unina.it. For any other requests related to this procedure, please contact, instead, the COINOR at the following address: coinor@unina.it

The concerned parties have the rights referred to the articles 15-22 of the EU regulation. The complete information related to the collection of the personal data processing in this procedure is reported on the University website <http://www.unina.it/ateneo/statuto-e-normativa/privacy>

(Publication of the procedural acts)

This notice of selection and all documents attached will be published exclusively by on-line posting in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available on the website www.unina.it) and by publication on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

The online publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II has the force of notification with all effects and no personal messages will be sent to interested parties. Therefore, it is recommended that applicants vigilantly monitor changes or updates of the web links above throughout the application process.

SECTION 13

(Final Provisions)

The University reserves the right to exclude at any time the applicants participating in the procedure pursuant to this notice for failure to comply with its provisions or within the time specified or for default of the applicants' requirements. The exclusions are made with a Chancellor's Decree. Exclusions will be notified exclusively by online publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available at the site www.unina.it), as well as by publication of the exclusion decree on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

Please note that Annex A is part of this announcement. We strongly recommend to carefully read the aforementioned document.

This announcement has been written in Italian. The English version is a translation for information purposes only. In case of discrepancy, the Italian version shall prevail and be binding.
