SECTION 5

(Selection procedure)

The admission exam, in English, will consist of two phases:

- Assessment test
- Interview

The selection procedure refers to the Annex A.3 that is integral part of this notice.

Those admitted to the interview will receive the communication of the admission as set forth in the following section 7. After the test and motivational interview the admitted students to Standard Classes will be divided between the two cohorts (morning vs afternoon) and two profiles (“geeks” vs “creatives”) at the sole discretion of the evaluation committee.

SECTION 6

(Admission tests: date and place of the evaluation test – execution modalities – candidates obligations)

The evaluation test will be held in Naples, on the ground floor of the University Complex of Biotechnological Sciences (Via De Amicis, 95) from 3 July 2017.

The schedule might be subject to changes. The up-to-date schedule will be published on the Academy’s web site.

The timetable of the tests will be announced exclusively by on-line publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available on the web site www.unina.it) and by means of publication on www.developeracademy.unina.it. This timetable will be published no later than 7 days before the beginning of the exams.

For this year’s selection, the Academy is offering applicants to sit for on-line assessment also in one of the following remote examination sites: London, Madrid, Milan, Munich, Paris, as depicted in detail, in the Annex A.4.

The session site will be assigned to the applicants in order to the preferred location selected in the application form.

The schedule might be subject to changes. The up-to-date schedule will be published on the Academy’s web site.

The seats of remote session are limited. Therefore access to remote sessions will be granted on a First-Come-First-Served basis. Overflow applicants will be invited (via e-mail) to take their exams in Naples.

Possible postponements of the dates listed in the calendar will be announced in the same way. The on-line publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II has the force of notification with all effects. No personal messages will be sent to interested parties. Therefore, all information relating to the admission test, having the force of notification, will only be made public in the above mentioned form.

The applicants, who regularly applied for the admission test, according to the previous section 3, must arrive at the time and in the day indicated in the convocation notice at the university location assigned to them, with a valid identification document (ID card, passport). It will not be granted access to the test for applicants coming after the end of recognition operations. Applicants who, for any reason, are absent at the test after the end of the aforesaid recognition operations, will be deemed to have withdrawn. Before carrying out the test, an information leaflet with procedure instructions will be given to all participants.

During the test, applicants are not allowed to communicate between each other. Applicants, on pain of exclusion, cannot use or even hold mobile phones, smartphones, palmtops, electronic devices of any type and any suitable means for information storage or data transmission and also writing paper, handwritten or typed notes, books, publications, manuals, textbooks and reference materials, during the test, on pain of annulment of the test. Instead, bags, backpacks, writing paper, notes, books or publications or other material will be deposited and exposed on the ground next to the desk. Applicants must remain in their seats until at least thirty (30) minutes before the expiration of the provided sixty (60) examination minutes for Standard Classes and forty-five 45 minutes minutes before the expiration of the provided ninety (90) examination minutes. The applicant infringing the provisions of this section shall be excluded from the selection process.

SECTION 7

(Admission test: date and venue of the motivational interview - performing procedure)

The ranking lists (Standard Classes 500 and Master Class 70) of the applicants admitted to the motivational interview will be known exclusively by on-line publication in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available on www.unina.it) and by publication on the website www.developeracademy.unina.it.

In the same way, it will be announced date and time when the interview will be held. The interview will take place on-line (via video conference), in accordance with the procedures depicted in the Annex A.3.

SECTION 8

(Publication of the list)

The merit ranking lists (Standard Classes and Master Class) will be drawn up only on the basis of the scores obtained in the assessment tests and in the motivational interview.

In the event of a tie the younger shall prevail. The final ranking lists will be approved by the Chancellor and published in the Official Noticeboard of the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II (available on www.unina.it) and on the web site www.developeracademy.unina.it.

The students admitted to both Standard Classes and Master Class will be able to choose the education path to attend within 3 days to the publication of the final ranking lists. In the event that the admitted student does not choose the Class to attend he/she will be excluded from the Academy.

The condition of successful applicant below the threshold does refer only to the current selection procedure: this condition does not give any right concerning the access to the courses at the Developer Academy for the subsequent years.

SECTION 9

(Scholarship)

Apple has made a number of scholarships equal to 5% of the students admitted to the Developer Academy, in accordance with the final ranking.

All other students admitted will receive scholarships from Regione Campania, in accordance with the Agreement signed between the University and Regione Campania the 22 November 2016, based on the applicable European regulations (see European Social Fund regulations).

SECTION 10

(Access to documents, Information regarding personal data and responsible for the procedure)

Applicants have access to documents concerning the competition procedure, in accordance with the current legislation. This right will be exercised in the manner prescribed by the University Regulations laying down the rules on administrative procedure and the right of access to documents, issued with the Chancellor Decree n. 2386/98 and subsequent amendments and additions. According to section 13 of the law n. 196/2003, please note that the Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II is responsible for processing personal data of applicants, in accordance with the provisions of the Rules of implementation of personal data protection code used by the University, issued by D.R. n. 5073 of 30th December 2005 and subsequent amendments. The Technical Director of COINOR, dr. Alessandro Buttà (email address iosa@unina.it), is responsible for any fulfillment, pertaining to the present procedure, that it is not the competence of the Board in charge for the selection procedure.
